The petitioners filed the writ petition seeking a direction to the respondents to permit them to appear for the entrance examination for Hindi Pandit Training course to be held on 25.10.1998. This Court, while admitting the writ petition, passed interim orders to that effect. The petitioners sought admission to Hindi Pandit Training course for the academic year 1998-1999, and therefore whether the petitioners were successful in the entrance test or not, nothing survives in the writ petition.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed as infructuous.
